Dear 28(1) :

Re: Access to Information Request #2017-005 – Selling Asphalt

This is further to your access to information request received by the City on January 20, 2017, quoted as follows:

“ Please provide all analysis of potential for the City of Regina to sell asphalt subsequent to the 2010 McNair report, including but not limited to: financial analysis; memos; briefing notes; emails; human resource policies; cost/benefit studies and analysis; budget documents; etc. “

We have processed your access request and records responsive to the request have been placed on OneDrive for your access. If you cannot access OneDrive, the relevant documents will be placed on a USB as the documents are too large to email. Prior to releasing the records, there will be an additional charge of $14.00 as indicated in the City’s letter of January 30, 2017.

If you are able to access OneDrive final fees are as follows with no amounts owing:

The above fees have been calculated pursuant to section 5 of The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Regulations and a copy is enclosed for your reference.

Pursuant to section 8 of The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (LAFOIPP), some of the information has been deleted pursuant sections 16(1), 17(1), 18(1), 21, and 28(1) of LAFOIPP. This information has been removed for the following reason(s): it is personal, may harm a third party, is advice from officials of the City regarding information for pending negotiations or a pending policy or budgetary decision, may affect the economic interests of the City, is solicitor-client privileged or is not relevant to the request. I have included a copy of all above-noted sections of the Act.

If you wish to exercise your right to request a review of this decision, you may do so by completing a Request for Review form and forwarding it to the Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner within one year of this notice. A copy of this form can be found at <http://www.qp.gov.sk.ca/documents/Forms/L27-1R1-B.pdf> or you may contact the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner at 306-787-8350.

Please be advised responses to requests are published on the Regina Open Data website at the City's discretion. All information/data is handled in accordance with LAFOIPP. Your identity as the applicant is protected. Published requests will be available on the Open Data website at <http://open.regina.ca/> after a minimum of three to five business days following release to you.

If you have any questions, please contact Darlene Loucks at 306-777-7070 or by email at lafoipp@regina.ca.

Yours truly,

LOCAL AUTHORITY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION
AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

11
c. L-27.1

(2) Subject to section 29, a head shall not refuse to give access pursuant to subsection (1) to a record where the record has been in existence for more than 25 years.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.15.

Advice from officials

16(1) Subject to subsection (2), a head may refuse to give access to a record that could reasonably be expected to disclose:

- (a) advice, proposals, recommendations, analyses or policy options developed by or for the local authority;
- (b) consultations or deliberations involving officers or employees of the local authority;
- (c) positions, plans, procedures, criteria or instructions developed for the purpose of contractual or other negotiations by or on behalf of the local authority, or considerations that relate to those negotiations;
- (d) plans that relate to the management of personnel or the administration of the local authority and that have not yet been implemented; or
- (e) information, including the proposed plans, policies or projects of the local authority, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to result in disclosure of a pending policy or budgetary decision.

(2) This section does not apply to a record that:

- (a) has been in existence for more than 25 years;
- (b) is an official record that contains a statement of the reasons for a decision that is made in the exercise of a discretionary power or an adjudicative function;
- (c) is the result of product or environmental testing carried out by or for a local authority, unless the testing was conducted:
 - (i) as a service to a person, a group of persons or an organization other than the local authority, and for a fee; or
 - (ii) as preliminary or experimental tests for the purpose of:
 - (A) developing methods of testing; or
 - (B) testing products for possible purchase;
- (d) is a statistical survey;
- (e) is the result of background research of a scientific or technical nature undertaken in connection with the formulation of a policy proposal; or
- (f) is:
 - (i) an instruction or guide-line issued to the officers or employees of a local authority; or

c. L-27.1

LOCAL AUTHORITY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION
AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

- (ii) a substantive rule or statement of policy that has been adopted by a local authority for the purpose of interpreting an Act, regulation, resolution or bylaw or administering a program or activity of the local authority.
- (3) A head may refuse to give access to any report, statement, memorandum, recommendation, document, information, data or record, within the meaning of section 10 of The Evidence Act, that, pursuant to that section, is not admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.16; 2006, c.19, s.10.

Economic and other interests

17(1) Subject to subsection (3), a head may refuse to give access to a record that could reasonably be expected to disclose:

- (a) trade secrets;
 - (b) financial, commercial, scientific, technical or other information:
 - (i) in which the local authority has a proprietary interest or a right of use; and
 - (ii) that has monetary value or is reasonably likely to have monetary value;
 - (c) scientific or technical information obtained through research by an employee of the local authority, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to deprive the employee of priority of publication;
 - (d) information, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to interfere with contractual or other negotiations of the local authority;
 - (e) positions, plans, procedures, criteria or instructions developed for the purpose of contractual or other negotiations by or on behalf of the local authority, or considerations that relate to those negotiations;
 - (f) information, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the economic interest of the local authority; or
 - (g) information, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to result in an undue benefit or loss to a person.
- (2) A head shall not refuse, pursuant to subsection (1), to give access to a record that contains the results of product or environmental testing carried out by or for the local authority, unless the testing was conducted:
- (a) as a service to a person, a group of persons or an organization other than the local authority, and for a fee; or
 - (b) as preliminary or experimental tests for the purpose of:
 - (i) developing methods of testing; or
 - (ii) testing products for possible purchase.

LOCAL AUTHORITY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION
AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

c. L-27.1

(3) The head of the University of Saskatchewan, the University of Regina or a facility designated as a hospital or a health centre pursuant to The Regional Health Services Act may refuse to disclose details of the academic research being conducted by an employee of the university, hospital or health centre, as the case may be, in the course of the employee's employment.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), where possible, the head of the University of Saskatchewan, the University of Regina or a facility designated as a hospital or a health centre pursuant to The Regional Health Services Act shall disclose:

- (a) the title of; and
- (b) the amount of funding being received with respect to;

the academic research mentioned in subsection (3).

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.17, 2002, c.R-8.2, s.165.

Third party information

18(1) Subject to Part V and this section, a head shall refuse to give access to a record that contains:

- (a) trade secrets of a third party;
- (b) financial, commercial, scientific, technical or labour relations information that is supplied in confidence, implicitly or explicitly, to the local authority by a third party;
- (c) information, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to:
 - (i) result in financial loss or gain to;
 - (ii) prejudice the competitive position of; or
 - (iii) interfere with the contractual or other negotiations of;
 a third party, or
- (d) a statement of a financial account relating to a third party with respect to the provision of routine services from a local authority.

(2) A head may give access to a record that contains information described in subsection (1) with the written consent of the third party to whom the information relates.

(3) Subject to Part V, a head may give access to a record that contains information described in clauses (1)(b) to (d) if:

- (a) disclosure of that information could reasonably be expected to be in the public interest as it relates to public health, public safety or protection of the environment; and
- (b) the public interest in disclosure could reasonably be expected to clearly outweigh in importance any:
 - (i) financial loss or gain to;
 - (ii) prejudice to the competitive position of; or
 - (iii) interference with contractual or other negotiations of;
 a third party.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.18.

LOCAL AUTHORITY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION
AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

c. L-27.1

Testing procedures, tests and audits

19 A head may refuse to give access to a record that contains information relating to:

- (a) testing or auditing procedures or techniques; or
- (b) details of specific tests to be given or audits to be conducted;

if disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the use or results of particular tests or audits.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.19.

Danger to health or safety

20 A head may refuse to give access to a record if the disclosure could threaten the safety or the physical or mental health of an individual.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.20.

Solicitor-client privilege

21 A head may refuse to give access to a record that:

- (a) contains information that is subject to solicitor-client privilege;
- (b) was prepared by or for legal counsel for the local authority in relation to a matter involving the provision of advice or other services by legal counsel; or
- (c) contains correspondence between legal counsel for the local authority and any other person in relation to a matter involving the provision of advice or other services by legal counsel.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.21.

Confidentiality provisions in other enactments

22(1) Where a provision of:

- (a) any other Act;
- (b) a regulation made pursuant to any other Act; or
- (c) a resolution or bylaw;

that restricts or prohibits access by any person to a record or information in the possession or under the control of a local authority conflicts with this Act or the regulations made pursuant to it, the provisions of this Act and the regulations made pursuant to it shall prevail.

LOCAL AUTHORITY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

17
c. L-27.1

Purpose of information

24 No local authority shall collect personal information unless the information is collected for a purpose that relates to an existing or proposed program or activity of the local authority.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.24.

Manner of collection

25(1) A local authority shall, where reasonably practicable, collect personal information directly from the individual to whom it relates.

(2) A local authority that collects personal information that is required by subsection (1) to be collected directly from an individual shall, where reasonably practicable, inform the individual of the purpose for which the information is collected.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply where compliance with them might result in the collection of inaccurate information or defeat the purpose or prejudice the use for which the information is collected.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.25.

Standard of accuracy

26 A local authority shall ensure that personal information being used by the local authority for an administrative purpose is as accurate and complete as is reasonably possible.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.26.

Use of personal information

27 No local authority shall use personal information under its control without the consent, given in the prescribed manner, of the individual to whom the information relates, except:

(a) for the purpose for which the information was obtained or compiled, or for a use that is consistent with that purpose; or

(b) for a purpose for which the information may be disclosed to the local authority pursuant to subsection 28(2).

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.27.

Disclosure of personal information

28(1) No local authority shall disclose personal information in its possession or under its control without the consent, given in the prescribed manner, of the individual to whom the information relates except in accordance with this section or section 29.

(2) Subject to any other Act or regulation, personal information in the possession or under the control of a local authority may be disclosed:

(a) for the purpose for which the information was obtained or compiled by the local authority or for a use that is consistent with that purpose;
