It's not largely symbolic, it's purely symbolic.

There is no line up of oil companies wanting to name city property. There is no problem this law is trying to solve.

Regina looks like a child who wants to blame everything on everyone else.

Stop wasting time and get working on things you can actually change.

Make a real plan.

Hi David,

Thanks for your comment.

I agree that the motion is largely symbolic, and we've got to get to work on other tangible improvements to our sustainability. I think we ought to do both. These matters are urgent.

Enjoy the weekend,

"It is inconsistent with our stated values to be associated with companies that continue to rely on and promote these sort of high-carbon energy sources."

Please, before you point fingers at others, fix our transit system, fix the walkability of our city, give us bike lanes, etcetera.

Then start pointing fingers at other people.

"Mr. Moe should stay in his lane and stay out of municipal politics," he said. "Frankly, I would think he has bigger fish to fry with his handling of the COVID crisis."

I would think council has bigger fish to fry as well. Let's start with small businesses are hemorrhaging money because of COVID and our downtown is a parking lot.

Before you spend another minute talking about how bad other people are, make us a model of sustainability. Then you can making laws that judge the action of others.

Regards,

David
