Yes thank you and the other 3. Sandra Masters is showing real leadership through this. I just read how the Biden administration ordered no oil exploration on US federal lands. First nation reservations are federal land. The first nations that produce oil are incensed. Just another example of politicians that clearly are inept/uninformed.

Hi,

Just to let you know I was 1 of the 4 who voted against this.

I have been very vocal of my decision and spoke on the John Gormley show the following morning.

2 councillors have said they are changing their vote.

I am deeply sorry to all the men and women who work so hard to keep us warm and gas in our cars.
