Subject: Statement for CTV media inquiry

Hi, statements follows as revised. Communications will forward to the Mayor's Office and keep you posted on outcomes.

Thank you for your help in responding so quickly to this inquiry. It is much appreciated.

The following quote can be attributed to Jill Hargrove, Director, Facilities Management Services:

"The City of Regina has a comprehensive, corporate facilities master plan. A new police headquarters is identified as a priority and is included in the City's five-year capital plan, subject to budget approval. There is no identified source of funding at this time and no implementation plan confirmed. A determination on the STC building has not been made."
