Good Afternoon Mayor Sandra Masters,
Recently Premier Scott Moe made a public statement concerning a Motion made by the Regina City Executive, the statement in part is as follows:

Moe added that the City of Regina gets approximately $29 million a year from surcharges on SaskPower bills and $4.3 million surcharges on SaskEnergy bills. "If these Regina City Councillors have such a strong aversion to accepting money from energy companies, I assume they will no longer want to receive these funds, which could instead be distributed to other Saskatchewan municipalities," wrote Moe.

I was wondering what the City of Regina feels about Premier's Comment pertaining to the loss of Millions of dollars of review.
Thank you for your thoughts.
