Dear [REDACTED]

Re: Access to Information Request #2022-084 – Tracking ATIR's

This is further to your access to information request received by the City on August 26, 2022, interpreted as follows:

Time period: for records that were completed between January 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022

The vast majority of large public entities use a records/data management system to track and manage FOI requests. I am seeking access to several fields included in that system:

1. the request text (if this is not available, a summary of the request)
2. the date it was received
3. the date it was completed
4. whether access was granted in full or in part, and
5. how many pages were released?

I am only seeking access to general records requests, not personal record requests.

We have processed your access request and records relevant to the request are attached.

In your request you outlined you are not seeking personal record requests. Information was removed and marked as non-responsive is information related to personal access to information requests.

Definitions of acronyms used in the reports are as follows:

- ESA – Environmental Site Assessment
- FIR – Fire Investigation Report

The City does not keep track of how many pages were released for each request.

I have included a copy of all above-noted sections of the Act.

If you wish to exercise your right to request a review of this decision, you may complete a Request for Review form and forward it to the Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner within one year of this notice. You may contact the Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner at 306-787-8350.

Responses to requests may be published on the Regina Open Data website at the City's discretion. All information/data is handled in accordance with LA FOIP. Your identity as the applicant is protected. Published requests will be available on the Open Data website at <http://open.regina.ca/> a minimum of three business days following release to you.

If you have any questions, please contact Cindy Howden at 306-777-7263 or by email at lafoip@regina.ca.

Yours truly,

Amber Ackerman
Deputy City Clerk

LOCAL AUTHORITY FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

e. L-27.1

(4) Where an application is made with respect to a record that is exempt from access pursuant to this Act, the head may refuse to confirm or deny that the record exists or ever did exist.

(5) A head who fails to give notice pursuant to subsection (2) is deemed to have given notice, on the last day of the period set out in that subsection, of a decision to refuse to give access to the record.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.7.

Severability

8 Where a record contains information to which an applicant is refused access, the head shall give access to as much of the record as can reasonably be severed without disclosing the information to which the applicant is refused access.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.8.

Fee

9(1) An applicant who is given notice pursuant to clause 7(2)(a) is entitled to obtain access to the record on payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) Where the amount of fees to be paid by an applicant for access to records is greater than a prescribed amount, the head shall give the applicant a reasonable estimate of the amount, and the applicant shall not be required to pay an amount greater than the estimated amount.

(3) Where an estimate is provided pursuant to subsection (2), the time within which the head is required to give written notice to the applicant pursuant to subsection 7(2) is suspended until the applicant notifies the head that the applicant wishes to proceed with the application.

(4) Where an estimate is provided pursuant to subsection (2), the head may require the applicant to pay a deposit of an amount that does not exceed one-half of the estimated amount before a search is commenced for the records for which access is sought.

(5) Where a prescribed circumstance exists, the head may waive payment of all or any part of the prescribed fee.

1990-91, c.L-27.1, s.9.

Manner of access

10(1) Where an applicant is entitled to access pursuant to subsection 9(1), the head shall provide the applicant with access to the record in accordance with this section.

(2) A head may give access to a record:

(a) by providing the applicant with a copy of the record; or

(b) where it is not reasonable to reproduce the record, by giving the applicant an opportunity to examine the record.

(3) A head may give access to a record that is a microfilm, film, sound recording, machine-readable record or other record of information stored by electronic means:

(a) by permitting the applicant to examine a transcript of the record;
